ANNEX I

Activities

1. Application services - In order to assist the local clientele, Party A can offer application services to the local market. This shall include: assistance in filling out the application, explanations on the procedure for receiving the requested approval, and all other assistance related to the application which will progress the process. Party A may act as the applicant on behalf of the client should they have received a Power of Attorney for such action. Unless otherwise agreed case by case, Party B shall then invoice Party A for the requested services.

2. Testing services - The testing of products must be performed in accordance with the standards and procedures of Party B. Recognition of test reports prepared by Party A, whether the testing was performed prior to the request for recognition by Party B or after, may be used for the purpose of: issuing a Certificate, granting a Mark of Conformity, or in the case of Israel, approval for the release from customs.

   Test reports will be recognized for three years from the time of testing, as long as the product was tested in accordance with the updated and relevant standard. In those cases when the relevant standard/s were updated or the product was revised, it is possible to perform the testing of the deviation only, according to the instructions of Party B. In Taiwan, test reports for applying the Declaration of Conformity of Bureau of Standards, Metrology & Inspection (BSMI) will be recognized for one year from the time of testing.

   All Test Reports will include all necessary information according to all standard and/or regulations requirements
